Jeanne: Happy to do it – I agree, it should be fun. I'll update my bio and get that to you asap. Good luck with your class! I'm teaching this semester as well (at Fordham Law) but my first class is not until 1/25. Speak with you soon!

Eric

Thanks a lot Walter & Eric! Eric, thanks for agreeing to do this! Should be fun too!

I plan to set up a panel call several weeks before the session. Brian/I will get you additional info. Because this is a Continuing Education Credit course, your slides, etc will be very helpful to make this an educational panel. It's part of a full-day ICLE program. Brian will fill you in on the specifics of the day. Would you please send us your bio. I'm working on getting Frank Pallone, too🙏

We'll be in touch but feel free to reach out to me but, please not until after Friday. I have my first Columbia class this Friday! Take care! Stay safe!!

Dear Jeanne,

It was great to have a chance to speak with you and catch up this morning. As I explained, our Regional Counsel Eric Schaaf is much more knowledgeable than I regarding Clean Energy legislation and regulation, particularly with respect to EPA's activities in that arena. Eric has let me know he would be happy to participate on the panel. I'm copying him on this note so you have his email address; his phone number is 212-637-3107.

For Brian's information, as Regional Counsel Eric manages the 80-person Office of Regional Counsel in Region 2. He has been with Region 2 since 1984, and has a wealth of experience. He also teaches Environmental Law and a course on Climate Change Law at Fordham University.

Best regards,

Walter

Dear Walter,

I'm assisting in setting up a panel for the Public Utility Law Section's annual ICLE day which is being held on Friday, 4/16. The virtual conference is all day. Brian Lipman, Section Vice chair, is in charge of the entire event. He has asked me to organize & moderate a panel which would review the changes & expected changes in the law/regulations which will impact energy in the first 100 days of the Biden administration. Obviously, my first thought was of you. This panel would last for 90 minutes and would most likely be a morning panel. FYI, I am trying to get Frank Pallone as well (we have been friends since law school).

Please feel free to give me a call. Thank you for your consideration.

Please tell everyone Hello!!

Stay safe!

Jeanne
